THE LIQUOR TEST CASE

An Answer is Filed by Treasurer Wright.

HEARING WILL BE HAD TODAY

Judge Estee Insists That Citizens Must be Ready to Fight.
Circuit Court.

The answer in the case of Macfarlane & Co. et al vs. W. H. Wright was filed in Federal court yesterday and the test of the constitutionality of the Hawaiian liquor law is to be made before Judge Estee today. The answer is a lengthy document, and the allegations in the complaint are admitted except as to the concluding paragraphs. The answer "Admits that Ed Hoffschlaeger & Co. is a corporation as alleged, and that it has a license to sell liquor, but this defendant alleges that said license is issued under Sections 431, 432 and 433 of the Penal Laws of the Hawaiian Islands, 1897, instead of under sections 428, 429 and 430 thereof."

It is admitted also that the defendant has issued a large number of licenses for the sale of beer and "that he will continue to issue such further licenses to sell beer as in his discretion he may deem proper."

The correspondence had between plaintiffs and defendant relative to the issuance of licenses is set out in full. Plaintiffs on November 19, 1901, made application to defendant for licenses to sell beer by the glass and in any other quantity less than five gallons, the locations of the premises for which licenses were applied for to be subject to the approval of the treasurer. In conclusion complainant's letter on this subject read:

"We will furnish bonds as required by law with the exception of the condition against the sale and storing on the premises of malt liquors other than beer manufactured in Honolulu, as we desire to sell beer made in other parts of the United States."

"We tender herewith the sum of nine hundred dollars, the amount of the license fees as required by the statute." A further communication was sent to the treasurer a week later, wherein complainants said, "We beg to call your attention to the fact that said statute is in conflict with the Constitution of the United States, and therefore void for the reason that it discriminates in favor of the local beer and against beer made on the mainland in regard to the license fee."

"This discrimination is working great injury to us and to the several breweries for which we are the agents in this Territory. We respectfully request that you forthwith cease to issue any further licenses under said statute upon the conditions therein and thereby imposed, that is those conditions which prohibit the licensees from selling beer other than that made in Honolulu."

In reply to this letter, Treasurer Wright notified that no more licenses would be issued for the time being. In conclusion defendant alleges in his answer "that in the exercise of the discretion vested in him by law he refused to issue the licenses hereinbefore requested, and still refuses to issue the same."

"Defendant further alleges that said plaintiffs are suffering no wrong and injury and have no interest in the matters of which they complain in their said amended bill of complaint."

Wherefore defendant asks that said amended bill of complaint be dismissed and that the defendant be awarded his costs.

The liquor case will probably be heard immediately upon opening of court as Judge Estee is anxious to finish up the work here before next Tuesday, when he goes to Hilo to hear court.

MUST BE READY TO FIGHT.
Judge Estee served notice on prospective citizens yesterday that they must be ready to fight for the country of their adoption, even if the foe is of their native country.

A subject of Emperor William is the new citizen who was notified that he must be willing to fight and not wait to be forced before he answered the call of his country. Richard E. Wagner was a sailor, but now he is a citizen of Lanai, and it developed that he wished to take the oath so in case of necessity he could discharge the duties of the postmaster at Lanai. He answered all the questions satisfactorily until Judge Estee inquired:

"In case of war with Germany, would you be willing to take up arms against your native country? Of course, I don't expect there ever will be such a war," added the Court.

"I'd have to," replied the prospective citizen.

"It's not a question of whether you can be forced to do it, but whether you are willing."

"If I'm a citizen," continued the man, when the Court interrupted: "That's got nothing to do with it. Can you say that you like the United States well enough to defend the flag, to vote and to serve on juries?"

"That's not enough; it should not be guess work; and if you are not entirely free in your mind, as to what your duty is, perhaps you had better not become a citizen."

Wagner finally said he was willing and anxious to serve the United States in any way that he could, and Clerk Mailing was instructed to swear him.

son vs. John De Greaves for $200 damages, has filed a motion for bill of particulars. Plaintiff sued for money expended for the care of the wife of defendant, whom the latter in a separate suit for divorce, alleged was living in adultery with Stephenson. The bill of particulars was filed later, charging defendant at the rate of $30 per month for the care of his wife from December 1, 1895, to November 28, 1901, a total of $2160. A deduction of $100 is made for the absence of the wife from plaintiff's home. Another demurrer has been filed in the case of S. C. Allen vs. T. R. Lucas et al. An injunction was issued yesterday against H. A. Juen et al. at the instance of K. Lazarus. Defendants are alleged to have defrauded plaintiff in obtaining a deed to certain real estate and the sum of $500 for which they pretended to convey to plaintiff a half interest in a saloon. Defendants are enjoined from selling, mortgaging or disposing of the property.

Another Wreck.
VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 16.—The steamer Queen City reached port from the west coast this morning bringing more news of the wrecked schooner which was seen upside down off the coast. Further than that the wreckage bore the letters "L. Paint," no identification was learned. The name L. Paint is not found among registered vessels on this coast. The wreck is battering to pieces on the rocks near Cape Beal lighthouse. The steamer Tacoma arrived from the Orient at noon, and the steamer Rio Jun Maru is reported in the straits in-bound.

DEATH OF MRS. MARIA HOFFMANN
Another of Honolulu's Oldest Kamaainas Passes to the Beyond.

Mrs. Maria Hoffmann, one of the oldest white residents of Honolulu, died yesterday morning at her residence in Nuuanu Valley, at the ripe old age of eighty-three years. She was a native of Machias, Maine, and was a typical New England woman. She came to Hawaii in the 40's and has resided in this city for over fifty years. She formerly lived here with her sister, Mrs. Dr. R. W. Wood, and also with her brother, Judge Burbank, at Koloa, Kauai. She was married to Edward Hoffmann, who died many years ago. At her request her remains will be cremated. Funeral services will be held at her late residence, on Wyllie street, on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at which Rev. H. H. Parker, of Kawaiahae Church, will officiate. The deceased has a niece in this city, Miss Mary Burbank, librarian of the Honolulu Library Association, and another, Mrs. Von Gravenmeyer, in Hilo, Hawaii. The deceased was in town last week, her last illness being of short duration.
